O R D E R:

On the earlier occasion when the matter was taken up for hearing Sri K.S.R.Murthy, learned counsel for the petitioners, represented that he would find out from his clients whether the writ petition survives or not. Accordingly, the matter was adjourned. Today, when the matter is taken up again for hearing, the learned counsel has expressed his inability stating that in spite of the fact that he contacted his clients, he did not receive any instructions. From this, it is clear that this writ petition does not survive.

Hence, the Writ Petition is dismissed. No costs.
